Summer 2 - Week 33

This week we pray for...

...these children.

Dear Parents, Children and Staff,

A big welcome back to everyone as we start our final term before we break up for the Summer. We had a lovely start to the week this week with Year One leading our school Mass celebrating the vocations of priests. The children did a fabulous job. Special thanks to Miss Chick and Mrs Adamo for preparing the children so well.

Next week is a very busy week in school. On Tuesday we have the school photographer in. They will be taking class photos only, there will be no individual or sibling photos as these are taken in the Autumn Term.

On Wednesday we will be having our Spanish Day. Each class will have the opportunity to take part in traditional flamenco dancing led by a qualified dance instructor and will also get the opportunity to taste some delicious churros. The children are invited to come dressed in colours from Spanish countries or traditional Spanish costumes. Football kits are allowed. Throughout the day each class will study different topics related to Spain and will then all come together in Key Stage assemblies at the end of the day to share what they have learnt. Look out for photos on the schools Twitter account.

Spanish day on Wednesday will be followed by the SPFA Key Stage 2 Disco. All children attending are to be collected from the school hall at 5pm. Parents are to come in through Reception and exit out of the back gate.

On Thursday Key Stage One will have their disco after school. Again this event will end at 5pm and the same collection procedures will be in place. If your child has paid to go to the school disco they are allowed to come into school on Thursday in their own clothes. If your child is not going to the disco they will be expected to wear school uniform.

Finally a quick update, unfortunately Mrs Wright is still unable to return to work so Miss Morris will continue to teach our Year Three class until the end of the year. Please keep Mrs Wright in your prayers and we hope that she will be back with us in September.

Have a lovely weekend everyone.

Mrs Calvert-Lyons
Head of School

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

PRIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

ALWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

NO MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

TALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

SPEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
