Weekly Newsletter to Parents

Spring 1

Friday 4th April 2025

On Wednesday we celebrated Autism Awareness Day by dressing in blue.

Dear Parents, staff and children,

We come to the end of our penultimate week before we break up for Easter. This week the children have been very busy raising money for our Lenten charity.

On Monday Year One held their Cake sale which the whole school thoroughly enjoyed and they managed to raise a whopping £140. Well done Year One.

On Tuesday the children all took part in the Big walk for Lent. They had a fabulous time walking up to and around the fields of Hollyfields. A big thank you to Colin and Kristina for hosting us once again and to the generous contributions from families which led to £290 been raised for CAFOD.

This week the children all dressed in blue to celebrate Autism Awareness day. The children learnt all about neuro-diversity, celebrating peoples special talents and super powers.

On Wednesday our Year six pupils all bid farewell to their parents and headed off to Culmington Manor. They had a fabulous time taking part in activities such as axe throwing, raft building, aeroball, grass sledging and the giant zip wire to name a few. The children were an absolute credit to the school and their parents. The weather could not have been any better. I think there will be some very tired children who will definitely sleep well tonight !

On Thursday Year Four led the school in a lovely Mass where we focused on being leaders and pilgrims of Hope as directed by Pope Francis.

From the 1st April we are now obliged by law to separate Food waste from general waste. We have installed new bins in the playground and dining hall to facilitate this. All Sandwich children will need to take any waste home with Them. This is also to ensure you can monitor what they are eating.

A reminder that Parents Evening will be held next Tuesday And Wednesday. If you have not booked an appointment please contact the school office.

Have a lovely weekend everyone and Year Six get some Sleep !!!

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

P RIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

A LWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

N O MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

T ALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

S PEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
