Spring 2 - Week 26

This week we pray for...

...these children.

Dear parents, staff and children,

We have had a busy week in school this week with Reconciliation, non-uniform, prayer services and our Lenten Sponsored events. The year three children all received the sacrament of Reconciliation on Tuesday and approached this with contemplation and reverence. They were an absolute credit to their parents and school. Thank you to Mrs Pawley for helping the children prepare for this important event and supporting them on the day.

This weekend Year Six will receive the sacrament of Confirmation with Bishop David Evans. Can all children and their sponsors please come to the school Hall for half past four. We look forward to this special event and would ask that you all keep them in your thoughts and prayers as they undertake this important experience in their catholic lives.

Thank you to Year One for their Mass this week helping us to reflect on the importance of following in Jesus' footsteps. You all read beautifully ! Thank you to Mrs Adamo and Miss Chick for preparing the children so well.

Also I would like to take the opportunity to thank our Year Three, Five and Six Faith Ambassadors who led their classes in beautiful prayer services this week. The services were very reflective and thought provoking.

Parents Evening will take place on Wednesday and Thursday next week, please arrive earlier than your booked appointment so that you have the opportunity to look at your child's work before meeting with their teacher. Can I also ask that you keep to your allotted time so that other parents are not kept waiting. If you feel there is an issue that needs further discussion please contact the school office afterwards to arrange a further appointment. I will be available on both evenings if any parents need to discuss anything with me. The Pre loved uniform sale will take place on both nights, so take a look and grab yourself a bargain.

A quick reminder that next week Year One will be holding their cake sale on Monday and Year Three will be holding a toy sale on Tuesday to raise money for our Lenten charity CAFOD. On Tuesday if the children are wishing to buy toys at the toy sale we suggest that they bring in a bag to put their purchases in as we will not be able to provide these on the day.

Finally next Friday the SPFA are holding an Easter Bonnet / Decorated egg competition. All children are invited to participate. Please see the attached poster for further details.

Have a wonderful Weekend everyone !

Mrs Calvert-Lyons
Head of School

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

P RIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

A LWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

N O MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

T ALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

S PEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
