Summer 2 - Week 34

This week we pray for...

...these children.

Dear Parents, Staff and children,

We come to the end of another busy week in school. On Wednesday we had our annual Spanish day. The children all looked fantastic and participated in a variety of activities throughout the day including Flamenco dancing, making maracas, looking at art work inspired by Gaudi and Frida Kahlo, learning about the Day of the Dead, Spanish Greetings, Facts about Spanish speaking countries and Fan making to name but a few. However after speaking to the children their overwhelmingly favourite part of the day was eating the Churros, dulce lete and melted chocolate. I would like to say thank you to Ms Dormi and the staff for organising the day and also a special thank you to our cooks in the kitchen for producing such a fantastic Spanish themed spread at lunchtime.

We also had our Key Stage One and Key Stage Two Discos this week. Thank you to the SPFA for giving up their time and to Mrs Brennan for organising and running these events. All of the children had a great time, they all left very hot but with smiles on their faces. A special thank you to DJ Porter for providing the music.

Well done to Year Four for leading us in a lovely Mass on Thursday. They all read beautifully and we learnt all about the Holy Trinity. Thank you to Mrs Gray for preparing the children so well.

This week has been very hot with unprecedented temperatures. Can I please reiterate the importance of all children wearing suncream and sun hats and the importance of ensuring that they are drinking plenty of water during the day.

We as a staff are unable to apply cream to children but they are allowed to bring suncream into school in a clearly labelled bottle which they are to keep in their bags to apply themselves at break-time and lunchtime if needed.

This week we have had a number of children who have come to school without a water bottle. Children need to drink plenty of water during a school day but even more so when we are experiencing hot weather. Please also ensure that these are clearly labelled with your child's name.

Have a wonderful weekend and enjoy the sunshine.

Our Weekly Winner!

Dear Parents,

We are currently in discussions with a Reading charity who are keen to work with our school to further development the enjoyment of reading.

The charity is willing to support us and work with some of our pupils, but in order for the programme to work it requires adults to volunteer. You would receive full training from the charity and all volunteers would be subject to a DBS check.

If you or anyone you know would be interested in becoming a reading volunteer, please contact school and we will pass on your details.

The image shows a young boy with blonde hair, wearing a school uniform, smiling and holding a white sign. He is standing in front of a bookshelf filled with books. The sign he is holding has handwritten text that reads: "Volunteer with Bookmark and help a child like me learn to read." Above the boy, there is a teal semi-circle containing the Bookmark logo (a red bookmark with a white cat face) and the word "Bookmark" in white. Below the photo, the background is a dark blue gradient with a red curved shape at the bottom right.

Help a child learn to read

This year our school is working with Bookmark, a children's literacy charity that links schools with volunteers to provide children with extra reading support.

You can help a child develop the reading skills and confidence they need for a fair chance in life. Two hours a week, for 12 weeks.

As a Bookmark volunteer, you'll help your community and make a huge difference to a child.

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

P RIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

A LWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

N O MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

T ALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

S PEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
