UNITY POEM

I dreamed I stood in a studio
and watched two sculptors there.
The clay they used was a young child's mind
and they fashioned it with care.

One was the teacher:
The tools that were used were books, music and art.

One was the parent:
With a guiding hand and a gentle loving heart.

Day after day the teacher toiled,
with a touch that was deft and sure,
while the parent with their loving touch,
polished and smoothed it o'er.

And when at last the task was done
they were proud of what they had wrought,
for the things they had moulded into the child
could never be forgot.

And they agreed, each would have failed
if either had worked alone,
for behind the parent stood the school,
and behind the teacher, the home.
