Summer 2 - Week 35

This week we pray for...

...these children.

Dear Parents, Staff and children,

It has been a bit quieter in school this week as our Year 5 children have been away on their residential trip to Alton Castle. The children have all had an amazing time enjoying the fantastic activities on offer and they have been blessed with glorious weather which rarely happens when we have a residential trip. I must say a huge thank you to all of the members of school staff, Mrs Calvert-Lyons, Mrs Flowers and Miss Hart, for giving up their own time to take the children and look after them throughout their time at Alton Castle. It is very much appreciated by me and I know the parents will be grateful for your time and efforts this week too.

Last Sunday, we celebrated the Solemnity of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ otherwise known as the Feast of Corpus Christi. It was lovely to see so many families attending Mass over the weekend. Please remember to make time to go to Mass on either Saturday evening at 5.30 pm or Sunday morning at 9.30 am.

Well done to Year Four for leading us in a lovely Mass on Thursday. The children all read beautifully and we learnt all about the Birth of St John the Baptist. Thank you to Mrs Gray for preparing the children so well.

This week has been very hot again and as we move through June and July, the temperatures are likely to stay so can I please reiterate the importance of all children wearing sun cream and sun hats and the importance of ensuring that they have their water bottle in school so that they are drinking plenty of water during the day. We, as a staff, are unable to apply cream to children but they are allowed to bring sun cream into school in a clearly labelled bottle which they are to keep in their bags to apply themselves at break-time and lunchtime if needed.

A big thank you to all who donated bottles for the upcoming Summer Fair. This is greatly appreciated.

Next week we look forward to celebrating our School and Parish Feast Day, the Solemnity of SS Peter & Paul which is a Holy Day of Obligation. On Wednesday 29th June the whole school community will join with the Parish for Mass at 11.00am to be led by Year 5. You are all invited to attend so I hope to see you there. Have a wonderful weekend and enjoy the sunshine.

Mrs Calvert-Lyons

Our Weekly Winner!

Dear Parents,

We are currently in discussions with a Reading charity who are keen to work with our school to further develop the enjoyment of reading.

The charity is willing to support us and work with some of our pupils, but in order for the programme to work it requires adults to volunteer. You would receive full training from the charity and all volunteers would be subject to a DBS check.

If you or anyone you know would be interested in becoming a reading volunteer, please contact school and we will pass on your details.

The image shows a young boy with blonde hair, wearing a school uniform, smiling and holding a white sign. He is standing in front of a bookshelf filled with books. The sign he is holding has handwritten text that reads: "Volunteer with Bookmark and help a child like me learn to read." Above the boy, there is a teal semi-circle containing the Bookmark logo (a red bookmark with a white cat face) and the word "Bookmark" in white. The bottom of the poster features a dark blue background with white and teal text, and a red curved shape on the right side containing a QR code and the text "SIGN UP TODAY".

Help a child learn to read

This year our school is working with Bookmark, a children's literacy charity that links schools with volunteers to provide children with extra reading support.

You can help a child develop the reading skills and confidence they need for a fair chance in life. Two hours a week, for 12 weeks.

As a Bookmark volunteer, you'll help your community and make a huge difference to a child.

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

P RIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

A LWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

N O MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

T ALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

S PEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
