Weekly Newsletter to Parents

Summer 2

Friday 21st July 2023

We Pray for our Wonderful Year Six class.

Dear Parents, Staff and Children,

We have come to the end of our final week at school. A big thank you to all of the children for all of their hard work this year and to the parents for all of your support. It has been a privilege to watch the children grow and develop into the young people that they are. I would also like to thank the staff for their commitment and hard work over this year. We are truly lucky to have such a dedicated staff who work hard to try to give the children the best experience they can have at SS Peter and Paul.

We say goodbye to our year six class today as they move on to start a new chapter in their lives. Remember to always try your best at everything you undertake and be the best that you can be. Be true to yourselves and be happy. Remember that each and every one of you can achieve anything if you put your minds to it. Never settle for second best, aim high and reach for the stars!!

We also say goodbye to Miss Barnes, Miss Edwards and Father Michael as they move on to pastures new and wish them every success in their new jobs and parishes.

Finally thank you to the SPFA who worked so hard last Friday at our Summer Fayre and raised a massive £2,330.39. Also a big thank you to everyone that turned up to help and support on the night despite the terrible weather conditions.

Look after yourselves over the Summer holidays, stay safe and enjoy your time together as a family. We look forward to welcoming you all back on Tuesday 5th September.

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

P RIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

A LWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

N O MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

T ALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

S PEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
