

Year Six Curriculum Termly Plan

Mathematics

- Place value
- Addition and subtraction
- Multiplication and division
- Fractions
- Converting units

History

The Maya Civilisation with a focus upon customs, people, writing, numerical system and important historical buildings.

Geography

We will learn about the physical and human geography of the Amazon Basin.

Art

Art Illusions looking at perspective and how this can change a piece of art.

MFL

Spanish – spoken and written

Science

Living things and their habitats:

Children will be learning the conditions which are needed to survive, how to group and classify animals and plants, micro-organisms as well as learn about the scientist Carl Linnaeus.

Electricity:

During this unit, children will construct a series of complete and incomplete circuits and explore variations within them. They will also plan, investigate and evaluate a voltage experiment

Sustainability:

Children will learn about renewable energy and how to use it.

English

- Class text: Wonder by R.J. Palacio and Holes by Louis Sachar
- Spelling and handwriting
- SPaG:
 - Relative clause
 - Modal verbs and adverbs (indicating degrees of possibility)
 - Brackets, dashes and commas for parenthesis
 - Commas to clarify
 - The perfect form of verbs to mark the relationships of time and cause (e.g. has, have, had)

ICT

We will be learning about Online Safety and a unit of work about how to build a database. Part of this term, we will spend recapping and improving key skills when using the computer.

Design Technology

Cooking:

Maya tortillas (with salsa)

Gingerbread men

Construction:

Birdhouses

PE

- Dance
- hockey

RE

- Virtues: Eloquent and Truthful, Learned and Wise
- The story of the people of God
- Belonging to the Church
- Advent

Music

The focus this term will be around one song: Happy by Pharrell Williams - a pop song with a Soul influence about being happy. The children will complete activities where they appraise and compose music.