Weekly Newsletter to Parents

Summer 2

Friday 7th July 2023

We pray for all people who help us.

Dear Parents, Staff and Children,

This week has been full of exciting events. This week all of our children moved up for the afternoon to meet their new teachers and see their new classrooms. They all had lots of fun and all are looking forward to September. We also welcomed our new teacher Miss Hurrell who will be teaching year six from September and all of our new children who will be joining us in Reception. They all had a fabulous time getting to know Mrs Joyce and Mrs Smith.

Next week we will continue with our Transition arrangements for our Key Stage one children who will all move up to their new classes for story time on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday. This gives them a further opportunity to get to know their teachers and get used to their new classrooms. Year six will all be visiting their new Secondary school next Wednesday. This had to be postponed due to Teacher Strikes. If you have not heard from your child's Secondary school about arrangements for the day please ensure you contact them or contact the school office and we will try to help.

This week we had a visit from our Community police officer. He worked with our Key stage one children about stranger danger and the children had fun dressing up in police gear. He also did some work with our year four class on Online safety and the importance of this. He will be returning to school on Monday for a follow up visit. We would like to say a big thank you to him for his continued support and involvement.

A reminder that on Tuesday all of our Infant classes will be going to Twycross Zoo. They are all very excited about this. They should all wear school uniform but can wear a pair of trainers, suncream and will require a packed Lunch.

Next Friday Our School Summer Fayre will be taking place Starting at 5.30pm. I would like to thank all of the parents for your generous contributions. All of the children will be singing A song with their class and these performances will start promptly at half past five. We look forward to seeing you all there.

Finally we hope our Year six children enjoy their Prom this evening that has been organised by their parents. We hope you have lots of fun and enjoy making some special memories.

Have a lovely weekend everyone.

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

P RIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

A LWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

N O MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

T ALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

S PEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
