Summer 1 - Week 28

This week we pray for...

Dear Parents, Staff and Children,

A big welcome back to everyone as we enter the Summer Term. I hope you all had a lovely Easter holiday, got plenty of rest and were able to spend quality time with friends and family. As we are now in the Summer Term a quick reminder that children should now be wearing Summer Uniform and must make sure that they have a water bottle with them every day. As the weather improves the children may require a sunhat and sun cream. Sun cream can be sent into school with your child but must have your child's name written on it and it will be your child's responsibility to apply it. Staff are not able to apply sun cream for individual children.

As the Summer term has now started it is that time of year where Year six children are allowed, with permission from their parents, to walk to and from school on their own. All permission from parents must be put in writing and state the days your child will be walking home. If your child has an After School Club, then Parents must collect their children from these. This will start from Tuesday 3rd May.

Thank you to Year Four who prepared and led us in a lovely class Mass this week, where we celebrated French priests and the missionary work that they carry out.

On Thursday our Reception and Year One class went on a trip to the Think Tank in Birmingham. They all had a fantastic time and their behavior was impeccable. A big thank you to all of the staff who organized and supported on the school trip yesterday.

Next Wednesday, Mrs Pawley will be leading a Holy Communion workshop for our Year Three children and their parents in the school Hall. This is in preparation for them receiving the Sacrament of the Eucharist on Sunday 15th May. Details about the day will be discussed at the meeting but will also be sent out as a letter for any parents who are unable to attend. It is a busy week for our year three children next week as they will also be going on their class trip to Botanical Gardens which I know they are all looking forward to.

Unfortunately, at this time Mrs Wright is still unwell and unable to return to work, I know we will all keep her in our prayers and wish her well. I would like to take this opportunity to thank Ms Morris who has been covering Year Three for the last term allowing for the children to have consistent and good teaching, throughout Mrs Wrights absence, which has in turn ensured that there has been as little disruption to the children's learning as possible.

I am delighted to announce that we have been one of the lucky schools to be selected to be visited by the Commonwealth mascot Perry the Bull. He will be visiting us on our Commonwealth day which will be held on 23rd May. All children will be invited to come into school on that day dressed in colors of the commonwealth. Further details of this event will be sent out shortly along with details for our Jubilee celebrations.

I hope you all have a wonderful Bank Holiday Weekend .

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR

LEARN PANTOSAURUS' FIVE EASY RULES FOR STAYING SAFE

P RIVATES ARE PRIVATE

Your underwear covers up your private parts and no one should ask to see or touch them. Sometimes a doctor, nurse or family members might have to. But they should always explain why, and ask you if it's OK first. Remember, what's in your pants belongs only to you.

A LWAYS REMEMBER YOUR BODY BELONGS TO YOU

No one should ever make you do things that make you feel embarrassed or uncomfortable. If someone asks to see or tries to touch you underneath your underwear say 'NO' – and tell someone you trust and like to speak to.

N O MEANS NO

You always have the right to say 'no' – even to a family member or someone you love. You're in control of your body and the most important thing is how YOU feel. If you want to say 'No', it's your choice.

T ALK ABOUT SECRETS THAT UPSET YOU

There are good secrets and bad secrets. If a secret makes you feel sad or worried, it's bad – and you should tell an adult you trust about it straight away.

S PEAK UP, SOMEONE CAN HELP

It's always good to talk about stuff that makes you upset. If you're worried, go and tell a grown up you trust – like a family member, teacher or one of your friend's parents. They'll say well done for speaking out and help make everything OK. You can also call Childline on 0800 1111 and someone will always be there to listen.

Remember all of these rules and they'll help you stay safe, just like Pantosaurus
